

Christmas Party
and
Mark Twain Walk
3 December 2010
British Bookshop, party from 18.30
Weihburggasse 24, 1010 Vienna

TEA is having a get-together for Christmas at the British Bookshop. Come meet other members and enjoy a glass of glühwein and sing/listen to Christmas carols – in both English and German.

Before the event you may also take part in a Mark Twain's Vienna walk which will start at 17.00 on the Morzinplatz in front of the Superfund building – at the corner of Marc-Aurel-Strasse. This walk will last approximately one and a half hours and you will need a tram ticket. Enjoy finding out about Mark Twain's 20 months in Austria in the years 1897-1898. Dr. Candy Fresacher, TEA Chair, will be your guide through the streets of Twain's Vienna.

Afterwards, the glühwein will warm you up and you can network with other TEA members at our Christmas party. Snacks will also be provided and you will have the opportunity to browse through the collection at the British Bookshop as well as buy anything that appeals to you.

Please register for either or both events at: office@tea4teachers.org. We want to be sure to provide enough refreshments for everyone.

See you soon,

Your TEA TEAm
